EVENT
Call to Artists

ABOUT THE EVENT

The 2019 Art in the Garden event will celebrate Spring and showcase the latest in florals, botanicals and wearable art, created by Arizona artists. Set in our beautiful sculpture garden, this fun, mid-morning and afternoon event will feature a colorful display of garden-themed artist tents, bright umbrellas, live music, various art and garden demonstrations and business vendors, food & beverages, and a silent auction, followed by a ticketed, Sparkling Tea on the back, garden patio.

A shade structure of colorful umbrellas will set the tone for the Sparkling Tea, to be held from 2 – 4 p.m. Live music and a menu featuring finger sandwiches, scones and petite pastries will be complemented by guest speakers and of course, tea and a sparkling accompaniment! All artists selected to participate in the Art in the Garden event will be offered a reduced-price ticket to attend the Sparkling Tea. (Attending artists will want to make arrangements for their artwork in the front Sculpture Garden to still be shown during the Sparkling Tea in the back. Table seating assignments can be made in advance for those artists wishing to host their own tables at the tea.)

All funds raised from this year's Art in the Garden and Sparkling Tea events will be used to support the Shemer Art Center's Summer Camps, held for four weeks in June. Proceeds will help underwrite the cost of scholarships, instructors and supplies.

MEDIA

---

For this new event, we are accepting submissions from Arizona artists who create garden-related works in mediums such as graphite, colored pencil, watercolor, oil and acrylic paints, pastel, ceramic, fiber (scarves/drapes), glass, metal, mixed media, mosaics, photography & wood.
