

ABOUT THE JUROR

Patricia Sannit is a longtime Phoenix artist who was born in Cleveland, Ohio. She received a BA in Art History, Norwegian, and Fine Art from University of Minnesota and a MFA from California College of Art. Patricia has worked on archeological sites in the Near East and Ethiopia, which has influenced her art as it relates to her study of archeology, migration, community, and our place in nature. She is the recipient of many awards including the Scult Contemporary Forum Artist Award, the Arizona Commission on the Arts artist grant, Phoenix Office of Art and Culture artist grant, and an INFLUX grant. She has had residencies across the country and internationally as well as been on many panels. Patricia has also had solo exhibitions at Phoenix Art Museum, Mulvane Museum in Topeka, Kansas, and ASU Art Museum. In her artist statement, Patricia states, "I am interested in our historical place on the land, and nature's willingness to accommodate us, then reassert herself- violently, or so gradually that she replaces our efforts with hers, again."

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

The Shemer Art Center is now accepting entries from Arizona artists with work that shows inspiration from the earth for this upcoming juried exhibition.

Artwork should showcase the earth's elements either in concept or materials used. Selected works will be created using a variety of media, including but not limited to, paper, painting, drawing, printmaking, photography, ceramics, sculpture, wood, metal, fiber, and glass. Works will be unique in perspective and offer a new way of looking at the concepts of earth, air, fire or water. Artwork can be realistic or abstract and all artwork must be original.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Artists are asked to submit up to three artworks in digital format for the jury process.
- Artists may include one detail image for each entry if needed.
- Signature or artist's name must be cropped out or removed from the image!
- Images must be jpg format and 300 dpi
- Images should be no greater than 6 inches on the longest side and approx. 1MB in size.
- Each image submitted should be labeled in this format:
