MARCH ART HISTORY LECTURE!

Thursday, March 18, 5:30 - 7:00 p.m.
in our

March 2021

"In like a lion and out like a lamb!" This description of March weather also seems to fit the activity level at the Shemer Art Center this month, as we are underway with a new session of March/April classes, as well as new workshops and a dynamic and exciting ceramics exhibition.

We are also planning our first event of the year, Art in the Garden. Unfortunately we are not able yet to hold our Sparkling Tea, but we are currently reviewing dates so we can get it rescheduled to happen as soon as possible.

Art in the Garden

Another thing coming in like a lion is our new outdoor exhibition, Color in Motion, with a call to artists out for kinetic sculptures or movement in their design! The bright colors of these sculptures, once installed in May, are also sure to garner more attention, especially as our sculpture garden seems to "come alive!" If you know someone who should enter, please send them this email! Entries are due APRIL 2, 2021!

As you'll see in this newsletter, March at the Shemer Art Center holds many more surprises. We look forward to
