Meanwhile this month at the Shemer Art Center we will be celebrating the upcoming arrival of Spring, which signals it's time for our ART IN THE GARDEN event, this year to be a two-day event with FREE ADMISSION! We will also hold our SPARKLING TEA on our back patio, taking place Saturday, April 9, from 1-3 p.m. Tickets for this event are selling out fast and are $50 per person, so if you are interested in attending, please visit our website and make your reservation quickly!

March at the Shemer also means the opportunity to view new visual art exhibitions, including our two current exhibitions, UP CLOSE and INTERMIXED, on display

INTERMIXED features merged photographic images of patina copper and nature.

MARCH FORWARD

The much anticipated news of a relaxed mask mandate from the City of Phoenix has given us all a fresh perspective as we begin our March/April class sessions. We are looking forward to holding our first event without face masks since 2020, and looking even further towards June, to the opportunity to hold safe Summer Camps without wearing face masks! But please be assured that we are still operating with caution here at Shemer, and still encouraging masks be worn by those who are unvaccinated or concerned about protecting themselves. We pride ourselves on offering a comfortable atmosphere for enjoying, experiencing and learning about art! So we hope you will feel comfortable enough to stop by and see us soon!
