MAY ARTIST CAFE!

May 2021

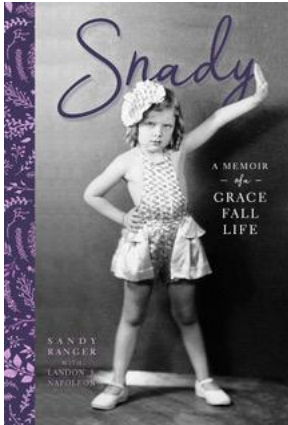

May is here and the temperatures outside are heating up. That means many of our students are preparing to depart for the Summer, but for the first time ever that also means our students don't have to stop taking art classes! Our students from out-of-state or even another country can still tune in virtually to the Shemer Art Center and be part of our regular classes. All that is needed is a place to work, some good light and a few hours. If this applies to you, let us know when you are ready, and if you can't be here, we will connect you with just the right class so you can feel like you are here, at your "home away from home."

May at the Shemer Art Center also means that we are preparing for our June Summer Art Camps, which start June 7 and are SOLD OUT! We are also planning our next event, our FURRY FRIENDS FINE ARTS FESTIVAL, scheduled for Saturday, September 25, and then we will prepare for our SPARKLING TEA Saturday, October 9.

In the meantime we are still showcasing our LIFE ON PAPER exhibition, featuring members of the Arizona Watercolor Association. Plus, we have new gift shop artists AND on May 22 we will be introducing Grace Sandra Fall Ranger, aka SNADY! Snady is an inspiring

SUMMER IS COMING!

Remember last summer, when we were looking forward to the warmer temperatures, as a possible deterrent to the Coronavirus? Well this summer we are definitely looking forward, with a new perspective and renewed hope of finally catching up with family and friends. As you begin revisiting opportunities to reconnect please do so safely and keep the Shemer Art Center in mind. If you are interested, we would enjoy the chance to share details with you about renting our venue (for members only) and hosting your next special occasion at the Shemer Art Center! Stay safe.
