Speaking of which, we have now started the last class session of the year and are planning many of our final activities, including our SHEMER HONORS event to be held next Friday, November 19, which will honor Tempe-based photographer MARK KLETT! Come and view his exhibition, which features his portrayal of the Arizona desert and showcases the relationship he captures between time and space.

Also make plans to attend our 2021 GIFT SHOP ARTIST SHOWCASE, scheduled for SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY, November 27. If you are looking for a one-of-a-kind holiday gift that can include a personalized note from the artist, this is your chance! Come and meet some of our gift shop artists and

As you continue to value and treasure your experiences at the Shemer, we ask you to keep us in mind as you are considering making your year-end donations.

If you are interested in contributing to the long-term operations of the Shemer Art Center perhaps consider Shemer in your directives to honor someone or continue a specific service with a gift given through a will or living trust. We are also asking for support of our Expansion & Legacy Campaign, on which we are working to add a new building for more and larger classes, and give us the chance to hire and inspire more artists of all ages!

Your weekly experience here at Shemer, as part of the Shemer family, is what we treasure and value the most! Thank you for the trust you put in us and for your continued referrals! We wish you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving!
