Can you believe March is already here? Yes, it is and it is quickly leading us into April and our annual Art in the Garden and Sparkling Tea event! To be held for the fourth year in 2023, this event will celebrate all things Spring, with a beautiful, garden theme. Wednesday, March 8 is the last day for artists to apply for this event, which will feature a colorful display of garden-themed artist tents, full of a wide variety of artists from all over Arizona showcasing the latest in florals, botanicals, ceramics, wood and wearable art. Plus there will be hourly art & garden demonstrations, live music, food & beverage vendors, and a garden art raffle! ADMISSION: FREE!

From 1-3 p.m. we will hold our separate and ticketed SPARKLING TEA event, catered by Arcadia Farms and set under a shade structure created of colorful umbrellas on our back, garden patio. Live music and a menu of scones, finger sandwiches and petite pastries will be complemented by a short program with guest speakers and a fashion show this year, plus of course, teas and a sparkling accompaniment! An award will also be presented for the most artistic garden hat! Tickets for this event may be purchased online for $60 per person!

Also this month we have an exciting Art History Lecture about Romare Bearden, and new classes and workshops in April & May, before we take a break in June for our Summer Camps for children. We look forward to seeing you soon!

New Docent Program!

The Shemer Art Center is pleased to announce that as part of its continuous efforts to grow its offerings of art educational opportunities, it is creating a new Docent Program!

Trained Shemer Docents will begin conducting guided tours of the Shemer Art Center in April 2023, connecting visitors with facts and information about current art exhibitions, classes, lectures and the other many art happenings at the Shemer Art Center. Docents will also share history vignettes of the Shemer Art Center building and property, as well as the exciting things planned for Shemer's future, like its current Expansion and Legacy Campaign!

Applications are now being accepted.

EXPANSION & LEGACY CAMPAIGN AT SHEMER!

We'd like to thank the Arcadia Camelback Mountain Neighborhood Association (ACMNA) for featuring the Shemer Art Center on the cover of its February newsletter. We are truly a "home for the arts" and a great resource for families and family members of all ages! Visit our website and find out how you can add more art education, experience or enjoyment to your life in 2023!

Did you hear our Summer Camps are already sold out for June? If you are interested in how you can help us with our Expansion & Legacy Campaign to add more classroom space for students ages 6 and up, plan to attend the annual ACMNA meeting March 18 to hear our update!
