Welcome to Summer in Phoenix! After successfully wrapping up our June Summer Camps with 96 campers ages 6-13, we are now looking forward to a busy and artful July and August at Shemer!

As we move forward into Fall we are excited to announce a couple of changes to our Shemer team. In April we were pleased to welcome Rhonda McCormack as our new Events and Volunteer Manager, and as of July 1 announce the promotion of Cassie Wiegmann to Program Director. With these changes, Shemer is poised to continue growing, both in strength and numbers.

Mark your calendars! The Shemer Arizona Arts Festival is just over three months away, scheduled for November 4 & 5, from 10 am - 4 pm. There are many ways to participate in this weekend full of art and fun, whether you are an artist interested in selling your artwork, an individual looking for volunteer opportunities, or simply an art enthusiast who wants to attend and support our Arizona artists and start your holiday shopping. For more information visit our website under Happenings > Events or Opportunities > Artist Opportunities. Also coming in November is our annual Shemer Honors event, this year honoring Arizona artist Ed Mell! His exhibition at the Shemer Art Center will open November 1, 2023 and our gala evening event will be held Friday, November 17 from 5:30 - 10 p.m. Tickets are now on sale. SHEMER HONORS

Ed Mell

Friday, November 17, 2023 | 6 – 10 p.m.

Each year the Shemer Art Center recognizes ONE Arizona artist who has achieved great success in his or her career and made an impact within the state.

This year the Shemer Art Center is pleased to honor the career of Arizona artist Ed Mell. An exhibition of his work, including some never-seen-before works of art, will be on display November 1, 2023 through January 4, 2024.

A dinner gala with Honorary Chair Bob Boze Bell will be held at the Shemer Art Center Friday, November 17, from 6 – 10 p.m.

For more information about event sponsorship and gala ticket information click here.
